Hello everyone.....I need some help,

On August 15th 2009 I was brutally assaulted by three males. I ended up in the hospital with my jaw broken in two places and and a laceration requiring 20 stitches to the left of my eye. I was spitting up blood for 4 hours and the doctors claim a few more blows to the head could have killed me. I had my jaw wired shut for a month and dropped 20 pounds. I am still not fully recovered as of November 8th and as many people these days, I have no health insurance. Needless to say I have a hefty Bill coming my way already exceeding $40,000.

I was on my way home with my sister and she asked if we could stop by her friends house. We arrived the at house around 2:00 a.m (The first house north of Pauline on the West side of Main street) and a small party was taking place. And if it matters or if your wondering. I was not drunk. After about 15 minutes at the party a large group of (15-20) males showed up at the house as I stood on the balcony. Apparently seeking revenge for something that had happened previously in the evening at the same house. I knew no one at this house except for my girlfriend and my sister. The group of males proceeded to come onto the balcony yelling and screaming. I lifted my girlfriend over the railing onto the front lawn and prepared to exit the balcony myself. I had no reason to stick around and fight someone's fight and had no idea what it was even about. As far as I am concerned violence is ignorant in most cases to begin with. I got hit in the back of the head and covered my head as quick as I could. They beat the hell out of me. One of the guys at the party (who I wish i knew, cause he probably saved my life) started throwing these guys off me telling them I had nothing to do with it. Some one yelled that the police were on the way and they all took off running. I was barely able to stand or talk as the police arrived. I was shuttled off in the ambulance and spent 14 hours in emergency.

The detective is working on the case but it not really getting anywhere. I was not able to identify the three males from pictures he showed me. My memory was shook up quite a bit as I am sure you could imagine. I have two names of the people that instigated the situation and brought back the mob.

Apparently they were asked to leave the house earlier in the night for harassing a girl at the party. They resisted with violence at the time and were out numbered so they left and came back with the mob. While these were not the two who assaulted me, they know who did.

If you have any information that would help to lead to the arrest of the assailants PLEASE PLEASE PLEASE email me. Let's not find out what happens to the next victim of this foolishness . We need to put a stop to this ignorance.
