We just had a 14 week old male Australian shepherd puppy ( very similar to the pup on the right in the photos below... which is his actual litter at 8 weeks). The three suspects, 2 women and a man ..are all black: ( the man is about 6'4" and 250 pounds, with med complexion , one woman who looked like she could be his sister: 5'2" The other girl was dark-complexion with braided hair bout 5'5" and med build..

Suspects were driving a silver Ford Taurus with a licence plate similar to [REDACTED] with a smashed in trunk. We made a police report already, but the lic plate #s don't exactly line up. Pup is very friendly but probably scared.... we hate to think of how such low-lifes would take care of a dog. Please call [REDACTED] or [REDACTED]. with any info. Thanks!
