BE PREPARED

An emergency in the downtown area may have dire consequences if you are not prepared. The City of Ann Arbor Office of Emergency Management has developed this brochure to assist you in the event of an emergency.

DEFINITION OF EMERGENCIES

Emergencies may include but are not limited to:

- Severe Weather: severe thunderstorm, tornado, extreme temperatures
- Fire/Explosion
- Hazardous Materials Incident
- Traffic/Pedestrian Accident

YOUR ROLE IN AN EMERGENCY

Help first responders by taking the following actions:

- Plan with family & friends on a meeting place if separated.
- Pay attention and follow all instructions from emergency responders and traffic controllers.
- Seek shelter immediately in the event of Severe Weather.
- Use designated evacuation routes, as instructed if an evacuation is ordered.

TYPES OF EVACUATIONS

Depending on the type of emergency, three types of evacuation could be necessary:

- Precautionary Evacuation
Activated when there is a credible threat directed at the Ann Arbor downtown area.
This may be limited to a specific area.
- Emergency Evacuation
Activated when a sudden event has occurred that requires the removal of all persons from the affected area as quickly as possible.
- Shelter-In-Place
In some situations, (e.g. chemical spills) it may be safer to seek shelter inside until the danger has passed.

NOTIFICATION PROCESS

The City of Ann Arbor has many systems to notify the public of dangers in the area.

- Outdoor Siren Warning System
If you hear the sirens, seek shelter, listen to the radio or instructions from first responders at the scene.
- Mobile Public Address
- Local Alert System
Comcast Cable Override
- Local Radio Stations
 - WQKL — 107.1 FM
 - WEMU — 89.1 FM
 - WAAM — 1600 AM
 - WWWW — 102.9 FM
- NOAA Weather Radios

MOBILE PUBLIC ADDRESS

By using their PA systems, Police and Fire personnel will provide specific information regarding the following:

- Type of evacuation
- Restricted routes
- Walking route instructions
- Evacuation routes
- Assembly areas for transportation pickup

LOST AT THE FAIR

CHILDREN (and adults with special needs):

- Parent/guardian of a lost child should notify volunteers at the nearest INFO booth or Police Officer and provide: cell phone number, child's height, weight, gender, age, ethnicity, clothing description & any noticeable/specific traits.
- Police and Fairs' Staff will be advised and search the entire Fairs' area.
- Police and Fairs' Staff will remain in radio contact throughout the search.
- Parent/guardian should return to where child was last seen or stay at the INFO Booth, unless instructed otherwise.
- Found children will be brought to the designated INFO Booth and parent/guardian will be notified.

VALUABLES:

- Provide description of lost/stolen item and your contact information at the nearest INFO Booth.
- Missing/stolen items will be reported to Police and Fairs' Staff.
- Found items will be brought to the designated INFO Booth and owner will be notified, if possible.

KNOW YOUR LOCATION

- Each Fair will supply an electronic copy of their Fair layout, including booth numbers and adjacent building addresses to all Emergency Operations service providers.
- Each Fair will provide all participants (artists, sponsors, food vendors, etc.) with copies of the Fair layout including building addresses.
- Each participant should learn the street address of the nearest building in case of emergency.
- Each Fair will provide participants with color coded, laminated booth numbers for the front and back of booths.
